Visit Gallia

Gallia County is a part of the Ohio River Scenic Byway which spans 452 miles. The Byway offers a variety of scenic views and full of the rich heritage of Appalachia.

Fun Fact

Ohio Dept. of Transportation Rest Area
North OH-7, Gallipolis, OH 45631

SAY CHEESE!

The Silver Bridge collapsed in 1967, taking 46 lives, after structural supports called eyebars failed. The bridge collapse has been tied in with lore and historical sightings of Mothman.

---

SAY CHEESE!

The Bandstand was built by the Stirlings, father and son, circa 1876 as a memorial to Gallia County War Veterans. Two years after being built, the contractors threatened to tear it down because they were owed $40. The ladies of Gallipolis came to the rescue by hosting an ice cream social to raise the money. It is a landmark of the City of Gallipolis, the Bandstand is still used today for many activities.

---

791 Farmview Road, Bidwell, OH 45614
Sun-Sat: 10:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.

The Homestead was once a stagecoach stop and an inn. Later, the Evans family opened The Sausage Shoppe in their front yard, which later became the first Bob Evans Restaurant. Today, the Homestead serves as a company museum and historical center.

---

518 Dan Jones Rd, Gallipolis, OH 45631

Situated in the foothills of Southeastern Ohio, the Park is bordered on the north by Raccoon Creek, the stream formerly called "Elha Petha", the Shawnee word for raccoon. To the south lie hills and upland fields, a drive from the historic Popular Knob. The park showcases 700 acres of natural areas and recreation facilities that afford visitors many and varied recreation experiences year round.

---

1284 Jackson Pike, Gallipolis, OH 45631
740-794-3047 www.silverscreenvii.com

Prices

- Tuesday Bargain Night: All Ages $5.50 Regular Admission
- Adult: $7.50
- Child (Ages 12 and under): $6.00
- Senior: $6.50

Matinees: Before 8pm $6.00 3D: $2.00

---

412 Second Avenue, Gallipolis, Ohio 45631

SAY CHEESE!

Mound Hill Cemetery, also known as Fortification Hill overlooks Gallipolis, West Virginia and the Ohio River. The cemetery dates back to 1880 and has at least two of the founding French 500 buried there. Stop by the GCCVB for a Cemetery Tour guide for detailed information about the cemetery.